

Hospitality trainee Amsterdam

What will you sink your teeth into?

Do you want to learn every day and do you want to stimulate your development after your internship? At Vermaat you can learn a lot during your internship and it does not stop there. Do you want work at Vermaat after your internship? That is possible. Do you see yourself shining at the Rijksmuseum? Do you want to surprise your guests every day in our company restaurant at Booking.com? Or do you give our guests a welcoming experience in the VUMC? Which location you choose, our guests are most important. During your internship you can expect guidance from a high catering professional who will learn you everything of the hospitality business and will guide you in gaining practical experience. As trainee you take a look in the world of hospitality. You ensure that our guests feel welcome and make sure our guests are fully equipped. From serving the most delicious dishes and drinks, to fill up the assortment, you do everything with a smile. Obviously, together with your colleagues, you ensure that after the workday, the restaurant is clean and organised.

Who are you?

- You follow an MBO (BOL) education such as hotel management or similar;
- The duration of your internship period is negotiable with us, there are several possibilities;
- Food and beverages is your passion.
- You are independent, proactive and curious.
- You are living in (surroundings) Amsterdam.

Who are we?

Vermaat tailors its catering concepts to businesses, hospitals, museums, universities, professional schools, airports, and events. Vermaat also develops its own brand for the catering and retail industries. Vermaat stands for solid partnerships, personal attention and good relationships, customized work for its clients, creativity, culinary craftsmanship, and professional teams. We do all this with the utmost attention for people and the environment. The core values of Vermaat are enthusiasm, growth, attention, and pride. These aren't just words — they shape our behaviour. You can recognize Vermaat employees by their personality and the way they do things for themselves and others.

What do we have to offer?

Do you want to achieve your maximum potential? Never stop growing? Then Vermaat is the place for you. We give talent the space to develop yourself and we give a suitable reward. We regularly talk about your growth during your internship. What do you want to learn? And what do you want to achieve? For this internship you will receive an internship allowance of € 400 per 4-week period (on a full-time basis).

Excited?

Can you convince us with your track record, but above all with your personality and drive? Reach out to us directly using the application button.