

Max Brown Museum Square

MANAGEMENT TRAINEE

Max Brown Museum Square is situated in four typical Amsterdam Townhouses in the Jan Luykenstraat. This largely residential neighbourhood distinguishes itself with beautiful tree-lined streets and gorgeous 19th-century architecture. There is no place in Amsterdam where you will find an area with so much style and allure. This beautiful and alluring area is the place to be for all lovers of arts and history. Not only is The Museum Quarter (the neighbourhood around Museum Square) famous for its impressive collection of museums & galleries, but it is also a bursting forth with shops, cafes, bars & restaurants everywhere.

Max Brown Ambassadors love to take care and act as connectors to the urban inside of Amsterdam. Being one of them means carrying responsibility for giving a warm welcome to Max's guests, providing them with a smooth check in & check out and in between the front office tasks you serve drinks & bites from the stylish bar in the living of Max.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- You love to tell Max's guests all you know about the Amsterdam underground.
- You are passionate and you inspire people through your incredible knowledge.
- You love learning new things and you will enjoy helping our guests.
- Posting, sharing and liking on Social Media are of greater importance than your breakfast in the morning.
- You are a recruiter of new Max Brown Ambassadors.
- You know how to make our guests part of our urban community.
- You have excellent hospitality- and communication skills (English and Dutch needs to be spoken and written fluently).
- You are currently following an HBO scholar education and are available for an internship of minimum 6 months.

Being a Management Trainee is the best position for getting acquainted with the whole hotel and will teach you all the insides of leading a hotel like Max Brown Museum Square.
