

MANAGEMENT INTERNSHIP – QUALITY BUSINESS UNIT NORTHERN EUROPE – NH HOTEL GROUP

Do you want to provide support to the Strategic Director of Quality at an international level? Then this internship is for you!

Who are we?

NH Hotel Group is a consolidated multinational player and a benchmark urban hotel operator in Europe and the Americas, where it runs more than 350 hotels. Since 2019, NH Hotel Group is part of Minor International and is working with Minor Hotels on integrating all its hotel brands under a single corporate umbrella with a presence in over 50 countries worldwide. A portfolio of over 500 hotels has been articulated around eight brands - NH Hotels, NH Collection, nhow, Tivoli, Anantara, Avani, Elewana, and Oaks - to create a broad and diverse range of hotel propositions in touch with the needs and desires of today's world travelers.

What will you do?

NH Hotel Group is committed to monitoring and refining the quality of our products and services. For that reason, you will support the Strategic Director of Quality in the Business Unit Northern Europe.

You ensure the constant improvement of quality, together with all stakeholders involved, from the Management Team of the Business Unit to department heads, Quality Influencers, Quality Souls, and hotel directors in different countries. You contribute new ideas, support by starting up and implementing Quality-related projects, carry out hotel visits, and you support wherever you can. You will travel to other countries to make hotel visits and work on your projects. You will support hotel openings, such as in Frankfurt, and with the re-branding of hotels. In short, a varied and unique internship!

Who are you?

- Are you, someone, who thinks strategically and who can see things from a "helicopter view"?
- Are you analytical and do you have good communication skills?
- Do you know how to tackle challenges, and do you always see opportunities for improvement?
- Do you have an immaculate eye for detail and are you able to switch smoothly between different parties and at different levels?
- Do you master the English language at an advanced level? Other languages are a plus.
- Are you following a college education and are you looking for a management internship for at least 10 months?

This could be the right opportunity for you!

What do we offer?

In this position, you are working for NH Hotel Group, a professional international hotel chain with a dynamic and friendly vibe.

In addition to the gross internship fee of € 650, NH Hotel Group offers the following benefits to trainees.

- NH University: various training and (international) development opportunities.
- National and international career opportunities: all NH Hotel Group employees and trainees are given priority over internal vacancies worldwide.
- From Groningen to Madrid and from Berlin to Buenos Aires! Enjoy city trips in our hotels worldwide with our special employee rate!
- Tip your friends and family about your favourite city trips: they can also book through you with the special Friends & Family discount.
